Violation: None Noted

General Comments:

Today's re-inspection was a result of the facility repairing the area of flooring that was in need of repair. The entire area from the three compartment to the walk-in freezer had linoleum flooring installed that extends four inches up the wall.

A small area near the window next to the three compartment sink must be sealed entirely. The manager of the facility, Natasha, indicated that the section of the flooring would be sealed sometime next week.

The possible pest control issue that was written in past inspection reports was addressed and treated by Ecolab.

At this time, the facility has corrected all pending violations.

Violation: IMPROPER MAINTENANCE OF FACILITY OR EQUIPMENT [HSC 114161-114182 & 114257]

Description/Corrective Action: The same vinyl baseboards have not been repaired. As a result, the entire area that has missing baseboards must have the flooring replaced so that tile extends 4 inches up the wall. The use of vinyl baseboards will not be allowed to repair the flooring issue.

Violation: IMPROPER EXCLUSION OF VERMIN OR ANIMALS [HSC 114259-114259.3]

Description/Corrective Action: The same pest that were addressed on the September 7, 2011 inspection report were once again noted during today's inspection. Also, numerous amounts of flies were noted during today's inspection. Although the facility has a uv fly trap to help control the fly issue, another means of fly control may be needed. The installation of an air curtain at the facility's door may help deter flies from entering the facility.

General Comments:

A representative of this establishment failed to appear at an Administrative Hearing on September 15, 2011 to discuss whether or not the lack of compliance for outstanding Health and Safety Code Violations and whether or not the permit should be suspended.

Today's inspection is a follow-up to this process. The results are as follows:

A second Administrative Herring will be scheduled for November 9, 2011 at 8:30 a.m. in our department to discuss the lack of compliance shown by this establishment. Failure to have a representative attend this hearing will result in the suspension of the establishment's food vending permit.

One reinspection will be conducted (if needed) at no charge. A service fee is assessed for each additional reinspection required.

Violation: VERMIN INFESTATION

[HSC 114259.1]

Description/Corrective Action: The pest (vermin) issue at the handwash sink closest to the three compartment sink did not seem to be addressed since the invoice of services from the month of August could not be located at the facility and the issue was still evident during today's inspection. The facility was told to retain an invoice to verify that the issue was addressed by a certified pest control company.

Violation: IMPROPER MAINTENANCE OF FACILITY OR EQUIPMENT

[HSC 114161-114182 & 114257]

Description/Corrective Action: The areas of the missing vinyl coving/baseboard were still missing during today's re-inspection. The east side of the wall where the dough mixer and dough prep tables are located still have the missing vinyl/coving baseboards. The area by the handwash sink where the baseboard/vinyl coving was missing during the facility's last routine inspection was poorly repaired. This baseboard was simply pasted back on using the same type of vinyl material that was previously on that area.

It was written on the last inspection report that vinyl baseboards can no longer be used in food prep areas. As a result, the facility was told to replace the vinyl baseboards with tile that is covered 3/8 inch and goes up the wall 4 inches. The facility was also told to have a certified pest control company address the issue of the pests that were located on the wall adjacent to the handwash sink ;however, proof of service could not be found for the month of August.

An invoice from Ecolab for the month of July 2011 was reviewed and the comments left by the technician indicated that the baseboards missing from the facility could lead to possible pest issues, and he indicated that the area near the hand wash sink could especially lead to pest control issues.

During today inspection, the area near the hand wash sink did have evidence of what appears to be termites. This same issue was noted on the last inspection report and the facility was told to have the issue addressed by a certified pest control service. Photos of the pests were taken during today's inspection.

General Comments:

Today's re-inspection took place to determine if the facility complied with the noted violations on the July 26, 2011 inspection report. The result from today's inspection revealed that the issues were not corrected/addressed. As a result it what was observed from today's inspection, the facility's owner will be required to attend an office hearing on September 15th at 10:00 a.m. at our department. At this office hearing, it will be discussed as to why the noted violations have not been corrected. The owner of the facility will be billed $ 220 for the September 15th office hearing. Should the owner have any questions regarding the office hearing and/or report, please feel free to contact our department.
