Lunch & Learn

November 19, 2019

RISE to the Challenge

Presented by:

Ediomo Ndon, MPH, CLEC

About the Presenter:

Ediomo Ndon received a B.S. in health science from San Jose State University and an MPH with a focus on health education from Fresno State. With a strong background in public health, as well as community and human services, he has worked in a variety of arenas with the common goal of creating an equitable environment that everyone can benefit from. He is the current Regional Breastfeeding Liaison for both Tulare and Kings counties and works to educate and advocate for increased and sustainable breastfeeding.

Learning Objectives:

1. Build a rapport with fellow health care provider colleagues.
2. Share resources with one another to build capacity for breastfeeding support.
3. Provide a time to share and celebrate successes.

Mission Statement

To promote breastfeeding as optimal nutrition in a supportive community environment where women are empowered to choose to breastfeed through consistent, accurate information from health care providers, hospitals, and other community resources.
